

AHEA

Alberta Human Ecology & Home Economics Association

AHEA CONFERENCE 2019 – Poster Session

26 April 2019

5:30 – 6:30PM

AHEA members, students, staff and community affiliates will present posters showcasing research or projects related to our work. Learn about the innovative work in our field and network with your colleagues.

Come have a glass of wine and chat to the poster presenters.

Who's presenting?	What are they presenting?
Lauren Degenstein MSc student in Textiles & Clothing, HECOL	The Formary – Moving from the take-make-waste fashion model
Emily Dymchuk, PHEc Institute for Continuing Care Education & Research	Embracing Our Niche: Improving Palliative & End-of-Life Care in Continuing Care
Emily Hendsbee, PHEc Dogs with Wings	The Influence of Autism Service Dogs on Families' Everyday Lives
Mahsa Kalantari, PhD Postdoctoral Research Fellow, HECOL	New fire resistant and comfortable active-wear for women in the trades
Brandi Kobes HECOL student (Family Ecology)	Organization Sustainability: The Strategic Plan
Patricia McNiven McKenna BSc, MSc, HECOL	Tools for Enrichment: Tool Usage and Associated Outcomes Following a Couple and Relationship Education Program
Laura Munevar MSc student in Textiles & Clothing, HECOL	Evolution of residual performance of firefighters' protective clothing over time

Who's presenting?	What are they presenting?
Lara Pinchbeck, MA (Human Ecology); PhD student (Human Ecology) Lara Pinchbeck: Research + Design	My walker makes me immobile : an autoethnographic exploration of a mobility device.
Lavonne Roloff, PHEc Alberta Home Visitation Network Association	Taking the Next Step: Transitioning from Supervisee to Supervisor in Home Visitation
Sarah Somerville MSc student in Family Ecology, HECOL	Predictors of Family Life Satisfaction in Midlife
Sandra Woodhead Lyons, PHEc Institute for Continuing Care Education & Research	A Framework for Family/Resident Engagement in Continuing Care in Alberta
Diana Yehia MSc student in Textiles & Clothing, HECOL	Fabrics to be Used as a Support for Graphene-Based End-of-Life Sensors for Fire Protective Fabrics
Johana Zuluaga MSc student in Family Ecology, HECOL	The Mindful Path to Relationship Flourishing: A Dyadic Approach